

Unifor Local Union Equity Fund Application Form

equity@unifor.org

Unifor is committed to be a progressive voice and an inclusive union that fights for workplace justice for all members and a fair future for all workers in communities across Canada. Our equity work includes being a voice for Black, Indigenous and Workers of Colour, Women, Racial Justice Advocates, Young Workers, 2SLGBTQIA+ and Workers with disAbilities.

Unifor has allocated $250,000 CAD to the Local Union Equity Fund that was established to support projects that enables local unions to broaden their equity work and dedicate time and resources to many campaigns.

The Local Union Equity Fund is not intended to fund donations to external organizations, or to cover expenses not relating to equity work, or expenses funded by other sources.

Please complete this form to apply for funding to continue this work with the support of your local union's equity work with the approval from your Local Union President.
