

6.7 million Canadians (one in five)
are living with a mental illness today.

APRIL 28TH
NATIONAL DAY OF MOURNING
JOUR NATIONAL DE DEUIL

6.7 million Canadians (one in five)
are living with a mental illness today.

 APRIL 28TH
NATIONAL DAY OF MOURNING
JOUR NATIONAL DE DEUIL

OVER 80% of Canada's employers identify mental health issues among the top three drivers of short-term and long-term disability claims.

 APRIL 28TH
NATIONAL DAY OF MOURNING
JOUR NATIONAL DE DEUIL

Mental health problems and illnesses also account for more than $6 BILLION in lost productivity costs due to absenteeism and presenteeism.

Mental health conditions were responsible for 47% of all approved disability claims in the federal civil service in 2010, almost double what it was 20 years earlier.

